

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

City of Altus

IS THIS FOR YOU?

Do you enjoy improving neighborhoods and communities through planning, building and development, and innovative programs? What ideas do you have to create a more pleasant and inviting downtown and entryways to the community? Can you help simplify and streamline zoning, building permits, and our development codes? Did you enjoy playing SimCity® or sketching out plans and drawings of neighborhoods and homes? Do you have a vision for a better community through development improvements? Do you want to make a positive and impactful difference in Altus?

POSITION SUMMARY

The City of Altus seeks to hire a self-motivated, creative, visionary, and dynamic leader to serve as its next Community Development Director. As Director, you will deliver planning, inspection, assessing and development services in a manner that balances the need for speed, accuracy, safety, public input/reflection, customer service, and innovation. You will bring new programs and ideas to improve community interactions and neighborhood services. In addition, you will work with developers, consultants, government officials and the public to implement these improvements to the codes and programs.

Your department to assist you in these endeavors includes a team of 3 to 5 employees ready for your leadership and example. You will be actively involved in various civic meetings such as Planning Commission, Board of Adjustment, and City Council meetings. Your direct supervisor will be the City Manager.
