

OKLAHOMA CHAPTER AWARD NOMINATIONS

GREAT NEIGHBORHOOD

Great Places in America singles out places of exemplary character, quality and planning; places with a unique identity, cultural interest, community involvement, and a sustainable vision for tomorrow.

Great Neighborhood Characteristics:

- Livable Built Environment - Shows how all elements of the built environment — including land use, transportation, housing, energy, and infrastructure — work together to provide a high quality of life through sustainable, green places for living, working, and recreation.
- Harmony with Nature - Ensures that the contributions of natural resources to human well-being are explicitly recognized and valued, and that maintaining their health is a primary objective.
- Resilient Economy - Is built to weather both positive and negative economic circumstances through sustainable urban development and redevelopment strategies that foster green business growth and build reliance on local assets.
- Interwoven Equity - Ensures fairness and equity in providing for the housing, services, health, safety, culture, and livelihood needs of all citizens and groups.
- Healthy Community - Recognizes and addresses public health needs by providing for healthy foods, physical activity, access to recreation, health care, environmental justice, and safety.
- Responsible Regionalism - Acts as an anchor of surrounding regions, and exhibits high levels of connectivity with neighboring areas. Accounts for, connects with, and is compatible with adjacent neighborhoods and the community as a whole.
- Authentic Participation - Is built through planning processes that actively involve all segments of the community in analyzing issues, generating visions, developing plans, and monitoring outcomes.

Oklahoma's program follows the National APA criteria; so, for more information on the above characteristics go to planning.org/greatplaces/suggestion/.
