

OKLAHOMA CHAPTER AWARD NOMINATIONS

GREAT PUBLIC SPACE

Great Places in America singles out places of exemplary character, quality and planning; places with a unique identity, cultural interest, community involvement, and a sustainable vision for tomorrow.

Great Public Spaces Characteristics:

- Livable Built Environment - Is designed to support community quality of life by creating a space in which all elements of the built environment — including land use, transportation, housing, energy, and infrastructure — work together for the benefit of community members.
- Harmony with Nature - Is designed to recognize the value of natural systems and respond to their natural settings.
- Resilient Economy - Builds a community's capacity to react to both changes in economic circumstances by providing a hub for community connections and economic activity.
- Interwoven Equity - Is treasured by the entire community, serving a diverse population's need for safe and healthy recreation and community.
- Healthy Community - Contributes to the health of the community by providing safe and healthy access to physical activity, recreation, and community cultural events.
- Responsible Regionalism - Connects with, and is compatible with, surrounding land uses, public spaces, and the community as a whole.
- Authentic Participation - Reflects the desires of all segments of the community, and is designed through a planning process that involves a broad cross-section of community members in analyzing issues, generating visions, developing plans, and monitoring outcomes.

Oklahoma's program follows the National APA criteria; so, for more information on the above characteristics go to planning.org/greatplaces/suggestion/.
